Mrs. Wonju McDevitt reads the chapter on “True Family” in Cheon Seong Gyeong.

Father briefly explains that a realm of resonance is created when all constituents have the mindset to live for the greater good. He also talked about the significance of the hunminjeongeum. Father also shared his childhood to the participants.

Rev. Dow Soon Lym gave a report on a Divine Principle seminar that was held in Japan for Koreans involved in the martial arts. He also demonstrated the power of ki (energy flow).

The participants sang a Korean folk song together. Hoon Dok Hae concludes at around 7:40 a.m.

After breakfast, Father returned to Cheonghae Garden by helicopter. The participants of the convention went to Yeosu and gathered in the main hall of Cheonghae Garden in the afternoon to hear a more extensive report by Rev. Lym about the seminar in Japan for Koreans involved in the martial arts.

After dinner, Rev. Jeong Ok Yu gave a report on the ocean-related initiatives that were being carried out in Hawaii. He also talked about how he had been sent to America, South America, Japan and finally to Hawaii. Rev. Yu explained how in the beginning of each mission he couldn't fully comprehend the directions from True Father but with the passing of time he now understands the significance of what Father was doing at that time.
