Ms. McDevitt read Father's speech from his speech book #36, titled "War and Backdown."

"Now God's fatherland and homeland can't help but be those of True Parents. Are the contents of my textbooks and teaching materials correct or wrong? Is there a God or not? If they think there is a God, they will automatically join the church. Even those who say there is no God, by studying those textbooks, they must make the conclusion that there is a God. The title of the speech (which is 'Cosmic Assembly for the Proclamation of the Settlement of the True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind, and the Substantial Word of God) is the ultimate and unique title I could find in my life."

"You have no possessions. Your husband and children are not yours. They belong to God's fatherland and homeland."

"We have too much time before D-Day."

"I provided textbooks and teaching materials, established Cheon II Guk, and have gone beyond the level which made it possible. You don't have to hesitate and let everything be offered (to the nation.)"

"Is North Korea the elder brother or younger brother? The elder brother, even if he would insist that he is Abel, is in the position of the second son centering on True Mother. Cain can't be Abel. South Korea, offering everything she has, must say, 'Let's live together.' This year's motto is 'Let's live together.' When the two live together, there will only remain God's fatherland and homeland, and no more questions nor answers will be necessary."

(Rev. Jeong Og Yu announced that a video clip titled "King of Peace, True Parents" had been created according to Father's direction. Father said "It contains all the records of True Parents," and they watched it during the meeting.)

"Where will you be? Where will you live? Ask your conscience. Your conscience is closer to you than God, and when you reach the position where you can find all the questions and answers in yourself, you can call '; and
; and; and; and; and; and; and; and; and; and; and live together with God in family. God's fatherland and nation is those of True Parents, the Blessed families and their Blessed children who are connected in blood."
