Mrs. Yeon Shil Yang read Father’s speech titled “The Borderline of the Heart,” given at the Tokyo Church, Japan on June 12, 1967.

“From now on, Hoon Dok Hae should not be held as one wishes. You should hold it centering on me using the same materials to read. You need to raise your Hoon Dok Sa (Representative who reads Father’s speech at the meeting) and have the Hoon Dok Hae with the people of the same career separately.”

“Those who cannot observe absolute sexual morality will drop out. Those who are previously married Blessed couples and those who were Blessed as virgins should be distinguished. Those who observe a pure lineage will become ancestors, and one cannot say ‘I am an elder brother since I joined the church first.’”

“Do you think you can have a love-relationship with your spouse as you wish after the Blessing? In the Pyeong An Province, after the marriage ceremony, there were some brides who waited for a couple of years to go to their bridegrooms’.”

“You do not know the God of night and the God of day had split, do you? Which God do you believe?”

Father talked about establishing a new structure by having workshops for senior members in Korea, Japan and the world, checking the attendance, and providing tests.
