“The origin of humankind lies in Mongolia

(Translator’s note: I do not know what Father exactly meant by saying ‘origin’ here).

Centering on Mongolia, east and west, and north and south have split, and the white and the black have split.”

“The highest mountain on earth is Himalayan Mountain in Nepal which height is 8848 meters.”

“How long is human history? Human culture had already originated 40,000 years ago.”

“It is only Baek Doo San that has a fountain on its summit. Who named that mountain as Baek Doo San (‘White-head mountain’)? Did animals name it? Did human beings name it? Did God name it? Or did Satan or an enemy name it?”

“There was a religion called Bek Bek Kyo. Was its founder Korean or Mongolian?”

“It has been said the Second Messiah would come riding on a white horse. Between Korea and Japan, there is an island called Dae Ma Do (‘Tsushima’ in Japanese). Do you know Why that island was named so?” (It means ‘to respond,’ — means ‘horse,’ and means ‘island’)

“At the end of human history, the solar calendar and the lunar calendar become one (under the Heavenly calendar).”

“In the four rules of arithmetic (addition, subtraction, multiplication and division), 3 and 4 are the numbers that develop and never disappear.”
