In terms of the Principle, the inspirational and internal spherical form of God as He brings the providence to its conclusion can be expressed more simply as a being of dual characteristics in harmonious union. Those who do not know about the being of dual characteristics in harmonious union will disappear in the end. If a woman does not know a man, and vice versa, they too will disappear. There will be no children, no family and no nation. The fundamental being of dual characteristics in harmonious union... Isn't the Principle and the Unification Church faith truly wonderful? Since God is a being of dual characteristics in harmonious union, can a man and a woman be the same? No, they are different.
