Note: These notes are taken from a Peace TV video clip. They cannot be published as definitive texts and should never be used in the future as an “official” publication of True Father’s words. However, they do provide a good idea of the “spirit” of the message. — Rev. Katsumi Kambashi

Mrs. McDevitt read Father’s speech from his speech book #34.

“True love means True Parents’ love, and true love will never disappear. After you give it and others become happy, the cosmos will embrace you. Those who have such love can visit even hell in the spirit world and nobody can stop them. They wouldn’t say ‘Don’t come,’ instead they would say ‘Please come here again.’”

“There are now 600,000 to 700,000 people of the Moon tribe now. Pak tribe, raise your hands. The Pak tribe has more than 5 million people. Bo Hi Pak must resemble me centering on Heaven’s tradition and blood lineage.”

“Your sweat is the cousin of your blood. Sweat is more scary (important) to shed than tears. Work hard shedding sweat.”

“Nobody can interpret my message (calligraphy) for David Sang Chul Kim (who passed away recently). (To Dr. Seuk) read it. If it is Person of loyalty and filial piety he is above me. There are many people who are loyal and filial but he is representative of such people. If I mistakenly write it, the whole world becomes upside down. For almost four hours in front of the paper I was thinking of all the Chinese characters I knew to write for him. He is the only person who came to me and helped me establish HSA-UWC.”
