However, they do provide a good idea of the “spirit” of the message. — Rev. Katsumi Kambashi

Dr. Peter Kim’s report: “Yesterday, Dr. Bo Hi Pak had a big assembly in Japan, which was successful and gave us a vision of the future. I did not report this to True Parents yet and so I am in the position of reading this to True Parents. As you remember, we held the assembly at the Cheon Bok Gung in Seoul on July 4 this year, held by the Committee of Putting in Action True Father’s Proclamation, which is chaired by Rev. Suk, Dr. Pak, and Rev. Young Hi Kim.

At the assembly we pledged to go forward until January 13, 2013 centering on Father’s proclamation, which was declared late May this year to heaven and earth as well as all Unification Church members. All the Unification Church members in Korea received the official memo from Dr. Suk about the assembly and I believe you remember that members signed Father’s proclamation at that time.

These signatures will be also used for our legal action against the Kwak group. Father told us to hold such an assembly, not only in Korea, but also in the US, Japan and all countries in the world, and yesterday, it was held in Japan. Dr. Pak spoke to 1,200 participants in Tokyo, which was broadcast through the internet to all areas in Japan, and more than 20,000 Japanese members could watch it. The US will hold it in the near future. (Then he read Dr. Pak’s report on the assembly.)”

At the end of his report, Dr. Pak said “Little Angels,” which was chosen and invited as the representatives of Asian art performance, would sing at UN headquarters in NY on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of 9.11.
