Who owns of the resources at the poles?

That day, Korean ambassadors for peace that were participating at the educational workshop joined the meeting.

Father asked if there were Bun Bong Wang there (“They came to the workshop but already left.”), and asked those who had participated at the launching ceremony of the Cheon Jeon Ho to raise their hands.

“Who is going to be the owner of the resources below the south and north poles, which are more precious than we can imagine? Natural treasures have been buried there. Those who shed sweat and blood to develop and love those must be the owners. That is the absolute principle, and no matter how people persecute us, we cannot help but take the path in God’s will.

How old am I? (“91 years old”) When even one day passes after the 90th birthday, it can be counted as 93 years old. Even if one second passes after 90 years, it can be counted as 93 years old. Then it will be connected to the 94th birthday. God has a plan for the development between 93 years and 94 years of age, and one must know the difference and prepare for it. Those who know what to do but do not practice it will be punished by Heaven.

You did not know (who I am) and so opposed me, but I have been busy fulfilling my responsibility. I make every second count and have no time to fight back. Those who know must be responsible.

Children must succeed to what parents have done and take it further. That is the heavenly principle, which is unchangeable.

When I had a public meeting, I came to the place before time, did the job and left the place. Those who tried to capture me alive and do whatever they want to do, prepared guns and all other weapons for that sake but could not even see me. How could it happen? It is like a puzzle. How could I be finished with meetings without having a problem with those people? I was like a daytime ghost. Nighttime ghosts kill people but daytime ghost must save people.”

“The ambassadors for peace must be standard-bearers in front of God and the principle of Heaven and earth.”

Opening the file on the desk which contains Father’s speech and his agenda book

“These are secret documents. This is my agenda book.” (Opening his agenda book) “All the history of 10 years from the year 2001 has been recorded here. It says ‘Oct. 3, 2001.’ It is not Jan. 1, 2001 but Oct. 3. That is the Foundation Day for the Nation of the Unified World. That day is also the National Foundation Day of Korea. This means Korea can be registered as a heavenly nation through the victory of Oct. 3rd 2001, without which Korea cannot receive a foundation for the heavenly fortune to be settled. I had been finished with my text book and teaching materials by Dec. 23, 2010.”

“If your sons and daughters do not get married before they became 30 years old, that means your family did not get through the heavenly principle.”

Holding one of his speech files.

“This is a secret document. Do you want me to read this or not? (‘Yes’) Pay tuition for that. That is the donation in our Unification church. It originally should be 37 % (of one’s income). You would be a thief otherwise.”
