

Sharing today's news about True Father
(7.4 by the heavenly calendar; August 21, 2012)

To all members of the Unification Family worldwide,
I offer my heartfelt appreciation to you for doing your utmost in offering Jeong Seong day and night in our common desire for True Father's recovery and health.

True Father's blood pressure has stabilized after rising slightly yesterday. I am sure this is the result of the very serious Jeong Seong and nursing True Mother and the True Children are offering, and the special Jeong Seong the entire Unification Family is offering night and day for True Father's recovery.

Currently, not only the Unification Family but many people in the Republic of Korea and around the world are showing keen interest in True Father's health. I believe it is because they are aware of the tearful life True Father has dedicated for the sake of Heaven.

At Sunday Service on 7.2 by the heavenly calendar (August 19), international president Rev. Hyung-jin Moon spoke about True Father's health situation. On that day he explained that this week will be critical. Therefore, I sincerely ask all members to continue offering their special Jeong Seong so that True Father can quickly recover his health.

Thank you.
