The head of the unification church and the practical owner of Seongnam Ilhwa, Moon Sun-Myung is reportedly in a critical condition. Seoul Sung-Mo Hospital today confirmed that Moon Sun-Myung has been staying in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) of the hospital since the 13th this month.

Moon Sun-Myung, well known for his love for football, has been called Moonsour after Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the owner of the Manchester City, because of his huge cash spending for Seongnam. Since it is known that his sons and potential heirs do not like football, this could mean a lot for Seongnam Ilhwa.
